

Annual Career Events

Graduate School Fair: Each year dozens of graduate schools visit campus to meet our students. You have the opportunity to shine. (In fact, every year employers mention how PC students do shine.) You also have the opportunity to ask questions and explore options you may not have considered.

SCICU Interview Day: Up to fifty (50) regional and national companies come together in Columbia, SC each year to interview students from Presbyterian College and other South Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities. In November, Seniors and Juniors may submit your resume for consideration. Qualified candidates are interviewed at the event.

Career, Summer Jobs and Internship Fairs: We are revising our schedule of Career Fairs this year, but you can expect to find companies with jobs and internships coming to campus to. You will have the opportunity to explore careers with various companies, summer jobs, or internships.

Teacher Recruitment Day: Senior education majors take note - school districts from South Carolina, Georgia and other southeast states will come to campus to interview you. You must submit your resume for consideration, and complete applications as required prior to the event. This event takes place in March.

On-Campus Interviews: Many different companies, camps and graduate schools come to campus to interview one-on-one with students. Advance notice is provided and students register for these sessions.
