Dear Mrs. Brown

31 October '43
Italy

Received two of your letters today Sure was glad to get the news.

I saw Paul Hartsfield yesterday. He is doing a lot of flying and looks in top shape -

The news of the Clemson - P.C. was the best I ever heard - want you to tell all the fellows that all the P.C. boys over here are really proud of them.

I also received your letter re regard to the 100 war stamps and will sure send one as soon as I find time.

I would like very much to get located around P.C. when I get back so if you hear of any odd jobs a broken down old return could do - I'll join all be there shortly
- my very best to everyone

as ever
- Mike
