Contractor Expectations

CONDITIONS FOR WORKING ON PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE CAMPUS
FOR ALL CONTRACTORS AND VENDORS PERFORMING WORK OR DELIVERING SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

We respect our valued partners at Presbyterian College. We also respect and honor our obligations to keep our campus safe, respectful and beautiful for our many students, visitors and employees. As a contractor, you must share this obligation. Please review these few simple rules, adhere to them when you are working on the campus and acknowledge in writing that you have reviewed these conditions and will abide by these terms. Please return a signed original to your Presbyterian College contracting representative and keep a copy for your files. These conditions also apply to any sub-contractors who work for you at Presbyterian College.

-All contractors and businesses should be properly licensed and insured. The college’s insurance requirements are included as an attachment to these conditions.

-Ensure your employees are qualified to work on a school campus. It the responsibility of every contractor to ensure that their employees have no history of felonies, are E-Verified through the Department of Homeland Security, and present no threat to our campus. Certain types of offenders are prohibited from working on any type of school campus, including college and university campuses. This includes those who are registered as sex offenders.

-Work only in designated work areas. Respect for classroom and student living areas is essential when working on campus. If you are in doubt, ask the college for an escort.

-All business should be conducted during normal business hours. Exceptions may be granted by your contracting representative and the Campus Police Department. Plan ahead if you need to work after hours or on the weekend and make sure proper permission has been given.

-Dress appropriately. All people working on the campus must be properly attired. Working shirtless and/or wearing clothing or articles which display slogans or art generally construed to be sexist, racist, pornographic, or lewd is strictly prohibited. The college prefers contractors to wear identifying badges or apparel bearing a company logo or name.
- Talk with respect to others. Presbyterian College is a place where respect for all people is taught and practiced. Please refrain from using disrespectful speech when working on our campus. Always refrain from striking up idle conversation with our students.

- Respect our campus landscapes and grounds. For over 130 years, dedicated workers have cared for our lawns, gardens, and grounds. Do not throw or leave trash where it should not be. Use designated lay down sites for materials.

- Have permission from both the college and others before you dig or tamper with electrical, water, plumbing, heating/cooling, telephone, or network services.

- No weapons or illegal drugs on campus. Do not transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, harmful chemicals, or any other dangerous item or substance onto the campus. Do not use or transport illegal drugs onto our campus.

- Smoke only in designated areas.

We appreciate your partnership with the college.
