i. All current RSO guidelines shall be considered Special Rules of Order, as defined by Robert’s Rules of Order.

Section 6.02 Each RSO will have a representative present for each House Meeting. One person may represent two RSOs. An absence of a RSO representative may be excused if the RSO contacts the Executive Cabinet 48 hours before the House Meeting and the Executive Cabinet approves with a majority vote.

RSOs are expected to hold regular meetings of their organization.

Each RSO will turn in an electronic and hard copy of their current membership roster to the SGA Secretary by the second Legislature meeting of each semester. Organizations that do not have exclusive membership will submit an average attendance at meetings in place of this roster.

Section 6.03 Applying for RSO status with SGA shall consist of the following:

a. Any group that wishes to apply for RSO status with SGA must submit the appropriate application (hard-copy and electronic copy) to the SGA Secretary at least one week prior to a scheduled Student Legislature meeting.

b. The Application must contain the name of the group, a mission statement, powers of the RSO, criteria for membership to the RSO, duties of members/officers of the RSO, committee operations, and signatures of at least 5 persons supporting the establishment of this RSO.

c. The Executive Cabinet will review the applications and, if approved, will present proposal to the Student Legislature for approval. If the Executive Cabinet fails to approve a RSO, the President of SGA will meet with the persons bringing the application to inform them of why the application did not meet the guidelines and assist them with understanding what is needed for approval.

Section 6.04 RSO Classifications

a. Beginning in Spring of 2016, all student organizations consisting of five or more students should be classified as a RSO.

b. There will be two classifications of RSO: Student Led and Faculty Led.
   i. Student Led organizations are those founded by students and operated by students.
   ii. Faculty Led organizations are those operated by faculty.

c. The Executive Cabinet will assign which classification each organization is in. If an organization would like to appeal this classification, they may do so by contacting the Secretary. The Secretary will then take the appeal to the Executive Cabinet to be discussed and voted on.

d. Faculty led organizations will have the opportunity to opt-out of RSO responsibilities and benefits.
e. Organizations that fall under the jurisdiction of larger organizations do not have to become an RSO, unless the larger organization is not a RSO. However, these organizations have the option to apply.

Section 6.05 RSO Benefits

a. Registered Student Organizations are eligible to:
b. Send a representative to the House Meetings to vote on their behalf.
c. Apply for funding from Student Government Association.
d. Attend RSO events to recruit new members.

Section 6.06 RSO Probation and Expulsion

a. RSOs are required to send a representative to every House Meeting. An excused absence may be granted with a majority vote from the Executive Cabinet.
b. If a RSO misses one House Meeting in a semester, then that RSO will be placed under probation meaning that an RSO may not vote in the next House Meeting.
c. If a RSO misses two House Meetings in a semester, then the RSO will be ineligible to receive any funds from SGA.
d. If a RSO misses three House Meetings in an academic year, then the RSO will be viewed as inactive by SGA and may be expunged from the RSO records with a majority vote from the Executive Cabinet.
e. An expelled RSO may reapply for RSO status again three full academic months following expulsion. Full academic months are considered to be September, October, November, February, March, and April.

Article VII: Anti-Discrimination Policy

Section 7.01 No Student Government Association officer, agency, affiliated project, recognized student organization, or any entity which receives any Student Government Association funding or privileges will practice discrimination.

a. Discrimination will be defined, pursuant to the College’s Garnet Book, as giving differential treatment or engaging in harassment with respect to any member of the College community on the basis of legally protected characteristics, including race, national origin, religion, creed, ancestry, citizenship, age, gender, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, genetic information, or past or present service in the military. Discrimination will be further defined as the denial of due process or the infringement of the substantive rights of any student guaranteed by the Presbyterian Section 7.02 Should a report of a violation of 7.01 by a Registered Student Organization arise, the Vice President of Human Resources and Title IX, the Vice President of Campus Life, the Associate Dean of Students/Director of Residence Life, Director of Diversity and Inclusion or any other investigative body will notify the SGA Executive Council. All privileges of SGA Registered Student Organizations will be suspended until a verdict is reached on the report. These privileges include but are not limited to requesting SGA funds, having a voting member on the student legislature, and meeting on campus.

Section 7.03 Whenever the case is resolved, the SGA Executive Council will decide to either end the suspension of privileges, or apply more permanent sanctions dependent upon the verdict.

Section 7.04 Any Student Government Association Officer, affiliated projects, recognized student organization or any entity that receives Student Government Association funding may appeal sanctions imposed by Executive Council to the Vice President for Campus Life.
