

Laurens County Academy of Music

Experience growing confidence

The Academy of Music provides each student with exceptional music instruction designed to boost their confidence and abilities. Each student will see improvement while working with the PC music faculty through weekly lessons, recitals, and immersion within a vibrant liberal arts college campus.

*“Give them confidence in music and it will show up in other areas of your child’s life.”
Dr. Porter Stokes, Former Department Chair*

STUDENTS

Anyone, regardless of age or ability level, will find that the Academy can help them reach their goals. Presbyterian College music faculty have been helping local musicians improve for more than 30 years. Whether you are a beginner or very advanced musician you will feel welcomed and challenged at the Academy of Music. No auditions are required to participate.

*“I like that the Academy of Music has teachers who teach in a fun, interesting way. During the lesson, I am completely absorbed in every word. The Academy of Music at PC has great lessons, great teachers, and also a beautiful campus.”
Samuel, age 10*

LESSONS

Piano | Strings | Voice | Guitar | Percussion | Flute | Bagpipes

TUITION

Tuition provides for 13 weekly private lessons per term, and students complete each semester with a recital. Flexible payment schedules and discounts are available.

30-minute lessons: $275

45-minute lessons: $378

60-minute lessons: $480

“Studies show learning music improves children’s abilities and raises their IQs. Children who study music do better socially and academically (especially in math, science, and language) than children who do not study music. And besides all of this, learning music is fun.”
Dr. Richard Thomas
Professor of Music

For more information, contact:
Mrs. Lucie Svatonova-Hughes, director of the Laurens County Academy of Music
lasvatono@presby.edu
864.833.8577

