INTL 440 International Studies Capstone – directed study project incorporating elements from study abroad experience, thematic and regional specialization		1
• Study Abroad – 1 semester study abroad (Major can use coursework from study abroad to count toward Thematic or Regional Specialization requirement) • No more than 15 hours of coursework can overlap with another single major's classes. For example, a history major may count no more than 15 hours of history classes toward the INTL major. • Students may not receive both General Education and INTL major credit for the same course. • Any course counts once towards the major, even though it might be listed several times. For example, HIST 3440 cannot fulfill requirements in Common Core and in Thematic Specialization.
Total Hours Required		40
