Partner Universities in France

1. IDRAC

IDRAC is a private business school in France with 10 campuses across France. PC is partnered with the program in Lyon. IDRAC is unique in its way of teachings where it combines theory with practice. The school has organized many clubs on campus in which international students can participate. You can go see Vieux Lyon (Old Lyon) to enjoy the history of the old city. The city of Lyon has many impressive cathedrals and museums to visit as well.

2. Dauphine University

Dauphine is located in Paris, the capital of France. The campus holds 9,000 students, and is ranked as the 5th best business school of France, according to Eduniversal ranking in 2011. Courses are offered in English, and there is no French requirement to apply to Dauphine. As the university is located in Paris, it is always easy to go outside and explore the city in your free time!
3. Pierre Mendes University

The best advantage of studying at Pierre Mendes University is its geographical location in the city of Grenoble, France which is very close to the borders of Italy and Switzerland. For those who would like to travel across Europe while studying abroad, Grenoble is the perfect place to begin your journey. Moreover, the school has a very unique way of customizing training offers for the students which can be very useful to students in the future. Pierre Mendes University is internationally connected across the world as it has over 650 exchange programs, and is an international student-friendly campus. The academic standards and research program of Pierre Mendes University make it one of the most outstanding institutions in France. Situated close to the Alp’s mountain range, Grenoble is a perfect place for anyone who loves to ski or snowboard! The program requires 4 semesters of the French language in order to attend.