Partner Universities in China

1. Guizhou University

Guizhou University (GZU) is a public coeducational university located in the suburban outskirts of Guiyang, the capital city of Guizhou Province. It is originally founded in 1902, and is one of the province’s seven major universities and the flagship institution of higher learning in Guizhou. The university consists of 24 colleges and 2 public education departments. The university motto is “Illustrious virtue, utmost goodness, extensive learning and earnest practice.” Great emphasis is also laid on preciseness, diligence, practicality and innovation to contribute a lot to the economic and social development of Guizhou. The southeastern corner of the province is known for its unique Dong minority culture rich population of minorities in Guizhou allow for a great many ethnic festivals throughout the lunar calendar.

2. China Foreign Affairs University

China Foreign Affairs University is an academic institution in Beijing. It was founded in 1955, and is affiliated with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The courses of study offered include foreign languages (English, French and Japanese), foreign affairs, international politics and relations and diplomacy, international law and economics. The university offers both undergraduate and postgraduate programs. China Foreign Affairs University is the first Chinese academic institution introduced Model United Nations to China.
3. Tunghai University

Tunghai University was established in 1955 and the university is located in Taichung, Taiwan. It is a liberal institution, full of scholarly elites and abundant resources and is well-known for its beautiful campus. Tunghai has 8 colleges, 34 departments and 35 Master’s programs and 14 PhD programs. Tunghai University received high rankings in reviews and topped recruiter rankings. It is renowned for its picturesque campus and landmarks. Luce Chapel is one of Tunghai’s most famous and visited landmarks.
Lingnan University is a public liberal arts university in Hong Kong. The university has high standards of research and academic performance. 97.9% of Lingnan’s academic staff hold doctorate degrees. In addition to research, they place special emphasis on students’ learning and personal development. Lingnan is committed to the provision of quality education distinguished by the best liberal arts traditions. It is a pioneer in offering service-learning to its students. Service-Learning integrates community service with the students’ curricula and provides a distinctive learning experience for all-round development.