The university is a public university offering both undergraduate and graduate studies located in Turku (Abo is the Swedish name of the city). It is a city on the southwest coast of Finland, and located at the mouth of the Aura River. The university has about 8000 students, and 1100 administrative staff. The campus is located in an urban area, so transportation around the campus is convenient. The university has partnered with many countries all over the world, and it has diverse proportion of international students. You can go and see Port of Turku, Turku Castle, and Turku Cathedral while you are there. Enjoy sightseeing in Finland.