Partner Universities in Spain

1. Universidad Pablo de Olavide

Universidad Pablo de Olavide is located in Sevilla, which is the 4th largest city in Spain. The university has an enrollment of approximately 10,000 students. The university offers a wide range of majors including science, business, and Spanish. Courses are offered both in English and Spanish. The campus is located just 5 miles away from the city center so it is very easy to explore the city. Main attractions in Sevilla include the Plaza de Espana, Barrio Santa Cruz, Catedral de Sevilla, and Giralda Tower.

2. Universidad Francisco de Vitoria

The Universidad Francisco de Vitoria campus is located in Madrid, the capital city of Spain. It is a relatively new university with modern and sophisticated facilities on its beautiful campus. Some classes are offered in English such as business, education, and communications courses. Madrid offers countless ways to explore the culture and history of its city: visit the Royal Palace, Jerome Church, and the countless museums or check out bullfighting at Las Ventas.
3. Universidad of Navarra

Universidad of Navarra has five main campuses, but PC has partnered with the location in Pamplona, which is in the north of Spain. Students looking to study abroad in a smaller environment will fall in love with the campus in Pamplona. PC students typically take Spanish classes at Navarra. Pamplona has a unique culture with much to offer. Major tourist attractions in Pamplona include: Pamplona Cathedral, El Sadar Stadium, and San Nicolas. Pamplona is also the site of the annual San Fermin Festival, where the well-known tradition of running with the bulls takes place.
